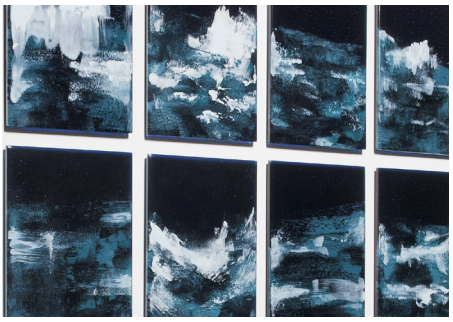
LISA CAHILL & ALANA WILSON . 16 OCT - 9 NOV 2013



Sabbia Gallery is pleased to present a beautiful new body of work from glass artist Lisa Cahill. The Colour of Nostalgia presents Lisa's exploration of colour and how that can trigger certain memories.
She writes: Colour has always been important and is possibly the reason I am drawn to the medium of glass. The colour in glass is much more intense than you find in other mediums and with the transparent nature of glass you have the potential to create differing depths and intensities of colour.

We are delighted to be holding Lux a solo ceramic exhibition by 2011 National Art School Sabbia Award Winner Alana Wilson in our Gallery Two space.
Alana's work explores both primitive and contemporary aesthetics and techniques in order to embrace elements of texture and a calm tonality. Her studio practice incorporates extensive research and experimental glazing to achieve textured and decaying surfaces. Lux is her first solo exhibition since completing her BFA Hons at the National Art School.

NEWS

Congratulations Jeffery Mincham AM, one of Australia's finest, and Sabbia Gallery's most highly sought after ceramic artists, on two great achievements. One being named as a finalist in this year's Fleurieu Art Prize. This prize proudly boasts itself as being the world's richest painting art prize, so it is quite an achievement for a ceramic artist to be included. His work 'After Fire.....Cherryville', 2013 was inspired after a bushfire swept through his beautiful area of the Adelaide Hills a few months ago. Mincham is known worldwide for his use of his ceramic forms as a canvas to express his feelings of the Australian landscape.

Secondly, as a finalist in the Paddington Art Prize for 2013. This prize is also predominately a painting art prize. The exhibition is being held at Mary Place Gallery, Paddington NSW and running from 24th September - 6th October with the winner being announced on the 26th September.
